Student Terms and Conditions and Appeal Regulations

The SISH Institute Student Handbook functions as your main student handbook and is designed to provide you with essential information regarding policies, procedures, and guidelines relevant to your academic journey. While the handbook serves as a comprehensive resource, there may be instances where you require additional or more specific details related to the University of West London (UWL). For such cases, particularly concerning UWL's Student Terms and Conditions or UWL's Appeal Regulations, you are encouraged to refer to the respective official documents by following the links provided below:

If, after consulting these resources, you still have questions or need further clarification, the SISH Student Service team is available to assist you. They are committed to offering guidance and support to ensure that you have access to all the necessary information and can navigate any issues effectively. Do not hesitate to reach out to them for personalised assistance tailored to your needs.

This approach ensures that you are well-informed and equipped to make the most of your academic experience while adhering to institutional policies and procedures.
